Several topics including a possible profile of White Bear Montessori school, the sheriff's report from tonight's meeting, highlights of the 2015 draft budget, the Phase II investigation of contaminated soil in the Hoffman's Corner potential redevelopment area, and tonight's MS4 public hearing and presentation were discussed as possible features in the next city newsletter edition.

Public Hearings

Sheriff Matt Bostrom presentation. Sheriff Bostrom spoke to the council regarding activities currently happening within the Ramsey County Sheriff's office. Specifically, he encourages people to use 9-1-1 more often than when the system was first implemented. New technology allows the sheriff's office to handle multiple 9-1-1 calls simultaneously. Next he discussed the department's hiring requirements and updated the council on current hiring trends to fill various vacancies in the corrections and patrol divisions. Bostrom then explained how heroin use is increasing across the Twin Cities metro area with heroin approaching 92% pure. He next introduced Randy Gustafson as the public crime prevention coordinator. The sheriff's office also uses a system known as Code Red to relay information to those members of the public who voluntarily subscribe to this service. He concluded with a discussion of the department's Fright Farm fund raising event that runs on weekends through October with proceeds going towards youth programs and the purchase of safety equipment.

MS4 presentation/public hearing. Ron Leaf of SEH presented on the 2013 Gem Lake MS4 report. He touched on the key points of the 2013 report then discussed how the renewed 2014 permit requires ordinance and policy/procedure review and updates. He explained how the Minnesota Department of Natural Resources (DNR) classifies ponds vs wetlands, with ponds serving in the role of storm water treatment devices and wetlands being naturally occurring. Upon a motion by Artig-Swomley seconded by Bosak and a unanimous council vote of 5-0, Mayor Uzpen opened the MS4 public hearing at 7:42. Mr. Leaf went on to explain the ordinance and procedure review will have a timetable running throughout the remainder of 2014 with a goal of full completion by April 3, 2015, the one year date from when Gem Lake's permit was reissued by the Minnesota Pollution Control Agency (MPCA). Council member Lindner stated that since the ordinances are land use-based, that all such work related to updating ordinances should be conducted with the Planning Commission. Upon a motion by Artig-Swomley which was seconded by Bosak, the council voted 5-0 to close the public hearing at 7:45.

Draft 2015 budget. Upon a motion by Bosak seconded by Artig-Swomley the council voted 5-0 to open the draft 2015 budget public hearing at 7:46. Tom Kelly provided an overview of the 2015 draft budget. The budget is balanced, will not utilize reserve money to buy down debt, provides for a full-time employee, and funds the water extension project into Hoffman's Corner. At 7:55 Bosak moved and Artig-Swomley seconded and the council voted 5-0 to close the public hearing.

Resolution 2014-15. Upon a motion by Lindner seconded by Artig-Swomley, the council voted by voice vote (Uzpen=yes, Bosak=yes, Lindner=yes, Kuny=yes, Artig-Swomley=yes) 5-0 to approved the 2015 draft budget.

Justin Gese next reviewed a flow chart SEH created to illustrate the several processes and scenarios for Gem Lake to provide city water to the potential Hoffman's Corner redevelopment area. The flow chart outlines the components of the city water project, including deadlines for submittals, the timing that reflects different scenarios based on the city's priorities, and helps illustrate the many possible outcomes of all that is necessary for this project to reach completion. Next was a general discussion on obtaining an agreement with White Bear Lake to provide Gem Lake with city water given all the variables presently at play inside White Bear Lake.
